“Remember you come here having already understood the necessity of struggling with yourself — only with yourself. Therefore thank everyone who gives you the opportunity.” - Gurdjieff aphorism.

THE ALL & EVERYTHING HUMANITIES CONFERENCE: WHAT IT IS AND IS NOT

The ALL & EVERYTHING Conference was originally conceived in 1996 as a meeting of the “Companions of the Book.” The conference has developed into a world forum for the presentation and discussion of recent writings, themes and music associated with the Work.

The Conference provides an open, congenial and serious atmosphere for the sharing of research and investigation of G. I. Gurdjieff's legacy. The Conference seeks to keep the study of the teachings of Gurdjieff relevant to global, scientific, spiritual and sociological developments. The gathering is open to all serious students of All & Everything and is not under the auspices or sponsorship of any ‘Gurdjieff Group’ or umbrella organization. The Conference is not intended to be a ‘Group Work Event’ and thus does not include Work on Movements or Exercises that are related to personal or group Work.

The Conference includes the presentation of academic papers, individual view papers, seminars on chapters and themes in All & Everything, and cultural events. The program is scheduled so as to encourage time for dialogue and the developing of personal relationships outside the structured meetings.

ALL AND EVERYTHING CONFERENCE MAILING LIST

If you lead or facilitate a Gurdjieff group and would like to recommend any colleagues to receive a copy of this newsletter and subsequent invitations, please return the form on the back of this invitation or email your request to us. If you wish to have your name removed from our mailing list, or have your contact information updated, please return the form or email your request to us at:
